Errors on a Memorial Tablet in Harpenden Parish Church.

Sir John Witterwange, Bart., of Stantonbury, Bucks., and Rothamsted, Herts., was married twice. His first wife was the second daughter of Sir Thomas Myddelton, of Chirk Castle, Denbigh, and the marriage was celebrated at the chapel of that castle, which was the family residence of the Myddeltons. Sir John died of small-pox on the 4th April, 1659, and, according to the Witterwange Memoirs partially published in the Harpenden Parish Church, "lyeth buried in the church of West Ham, in the grave with my father." It is curious, however, that on the tablet on the north wall, of the north transept of the Harpenden Parish Church it is stated that Mary, late wife of Sir John Witterwange, Bart., and daughter of Sir Thomas Myddelton, Bart., of Chirk Castle, Denbigh, was interred in the vault at Harpenden.

This is most probably erroneous. It is doubtful if at the time of his first wife's death Sir John Witterwange had bought the Manor of Rothamsted, and from the manners of that gentleman it would appear that his first wife died in London. From the nature of the disease from which death resulted it is not likely that the body would be removed from the vault at West Ham when the family took possession of the Rothamsted estate; nor is it likely that such a general chronicler of family events as Sir John Witterwange and his family was, would have omitted to state if such were the case.

Sir John's third wife was Catherine, daughter of Maurice Thompson, of Louisa. This lady died on the 10th of April, 1659, and "lyeth buried in my vault at Harpenden by my mother and my second

Sir John Wittewronge, Bart., of Stantonbury, Bucks, and Rothamsted, Herts, was married thrice. His first wife was the second daughter of Sir Thomas Myddelton, of Chirk Castle, Denbigh, and the marriage was celebrated at the chapel of the castle, which was the family residence of the Myddeltons. This lady died of small-pox on the 4th April, 1639, and, according to the Wittewronge Memoirs partially published in the History of Hertfordshire by Clutterbuck, "lyeth buried in the church of West-ham in the same grave with my father." It is curious, however, that on the brass tablet on the north wall of the north transept of the Harpenden Parish Church it is stated that Mary, late wife of Sir John Wittewronge, Bart., and daughter of Sir Thomas Myddelton, Bart., of Chirk Castle, Denbigh, was interred in the vault at Harpenden.

This is most probably erroneous. It is doubtful if at the time of his first wife's death Sir John Wittewronge had bought the Manor of Rothamsted, and from the memoirs of that gentleman it would appear that his first wife died in London. From the nature of the disease from which death resulted it is not likely that the body would be removed from the vault at West Ham when the family took possession of the Rothamsted estate; nor is it likely that such a careful chronicler of family events, as Sir John Wittewronge undoubtedly was, would have omitted to state if such were the case.

Sir John's third wife was Catherine, daughter of Maurice Thomson, of London. This lady died on the 10th of April, 1659, and "lyeth buried in my vault at Harpenden by my mother and my second wife."

This interment the brass tablet fails altogether to mention, and it would appear that the name of the first wife had been inserted by mistake in the place of the third. It is probable that the first member of the family to be buried at Harpenden was Jacob, the first son by the second wife, who died at Rothamsted on March 7th, 1645, and "lyeth buried in my vault in Harpenden Church."

A further error in the same tablet has been pointed out by Mr. Cussans. John Bennet, of Rothamsted, Esq., who died June 14th, 1763, and his sister Mary, widow of Thomas Lawes, Esq., who died Dec. 14th, 1816, are described as the great-grandson and great-granddaughter of Sir John Wittewronge, Bart. These should both be described as the great-great-grandchildren of the first Sir John Wittewronge.

The Herts Genealogist and Antiquary.

Parish Registers of the Sixteenth Century.

In compliance with an Ordinance made in 1597, afterwards embodied in the 70th Canon of 1603, every parish was to purchase a parchment volume, into which the entries from the old paper books were to be fairly and legibly copied. Unfortunately, in most cases, the old paper originals have disappeared but Mr. Chester Waters states,* and gives instances to prove, that in some few parishes where the original paper books are in existence, it has been discovered by careful collation, that the original entries are often abbreviated in the copy.

A glance at these transcribed copies shows them generally to have been the work of some clerk or scrivener, and beautifully written for the most part. Probably the scribe's task was one of difficulty, and he may have been unable in many cases to decipher or make order out of the paper originals.

According to the above-mentioned ordinance every page of the transcribed register ought to have been signed by the minister and churchwardens for the year in which the copy was made. But this was not invariably done and we are left in the dark as to how far any examination or revision of the copy was carried out. The uniformity of these transcribed registers is in itself calculated to arouse doubt and a few more corrections than one generally finds in the scribe's handwriting would have been some slight evidence that he had re-read his copy. Possibly he did not like to mar the appearance of his work by any unsightly erasures or alterations.

Cases in which one is able to check even a small portion of a transcribed register are rare, and it is to be hoped that the example which is given here, is an exception, otherwise our confidence in transcribed registers prior to 1603 must be considerably shaken and it behoves genealogists not to place too great reliance on the absolute literal accuracy of entries found therein.

Amongst the few annual transcripts sent in to the Registry of the Archdeacon of St. Albans prior to 1603 is one for St. Peter's parish in St. Albans for the year from Michaelmas 1571 to Michaelmas 1572.

It is duly signed by the Vicar, and seeing that it contains an entry of the christening of a son of the Vicar, it is reasonable to suppose that before signing the document he would satisfy himself of its accuracy.

A comparison of this document with the corresponding portion of the transcribed early register now remaining at St. Peter's is instructive. For convenience of reference the two records are here given in parallel columns.

Court of Requests Proceedings.

TEMP. HENRY VIII.

FERRERS V. BRYAN.

(Bundle 1. No. 67.)

Bill of complaint of George Ferrers and Elizabeth his wife, executrix of the last will and testament of Humfrey Bourcher late of Markyate, co. Herts. esquire deceased, recites that in consideration of good & faithful service, the King had granted to s^d Humfrey & his heirs for ever, all that the manor, site, 'cyrevyte & demeanes' of the late surrendered monastery of Markyate, after the rate of ten years purchase viz. for the sum of 200*l*., & so declared his mind and pleasure to the right worshipful Sir Richard Ryche knt. Chancellor of the Court of Augmentations, who accordingly addressed his letter, incontinent, to the s^d Humfrey willing him to deliver said sum of 200*l*. to Sir Frauncys Bryan knt. that it might be always in readiness to be paid to the King's use; whereupon s^d Humfrey sold other lands he then had in co. Stafford & of the sale thereof & other money borrowed of his friends, levied the s^d sum & delivered same to s^d Master Bryan who undertook to deliver same to the s^d Chancellor; that s^d Bryan has had three years to pay but has not done so yet 'to the grete dysceyte' of the King & 'thutter vndoyng as well of the said Humfrey as of his executours.' Reciting also, that at the dissolution of the late surrendered monastery of St Albans, certain goods & chattels belonging to the same were sold to the said Sir Francis for 81*l*. 'which parcell^e appere in An Inventory thereof made,' the said Humfrey became bound to certain persons to the King's use in an obligation of the sum of 200*l*. for payment of said 81*l*. about three or four years since, and s^d Francis being then destitute & unprovided of money gave commandment to s^d Humf. to sell the same goods with all speed, which s^d Humf. did, for 81*l*. and paid same to s^d Sir Francis, the s^d Humf. nevertheless remaining bound to the King. And reciting that s^d Humf. together with s^d Sir Francis stood bound to one Wm. Epgrave of London, browderer, in a great sum of money for payment of 100*l*. which came to the only use of s^d Sir Francis & that s^d Humf. also lent to s^d Sir Francis in his necessities, divers goods & sums of money viz. 'a cheyne of golde pryce xlvii' and 30*l.* in money paid to him by the hands of Edw. Bury his servant, all which money lent, amounting to 75*l.* the s^d Sir Francis 'litle regardyng the goodwill & frēdshipec' of s^d Humf. never paid, other than 50*l.* 'by reason of which ingrattynde' s^d Humf. fell into extreme sickness & made his last will & declared that if his purchase of Markyate might take effect that then s^d Elizabeth his wife, should have same for her life with remainder to George Boucher his brother & the heirs of his body lawfully begotten & for lack of such issue to remain to Jas. Bourghcher his other brother & the heirs of his body lawfully begotten & for lack of such issue to remain to the right heirs of s^d Elizabeth for ever & in case s^d purchase could not be carried out, then s^d 200*l.* & other sums in the hands of s^d Sir Francis, to remain to s^d Eliz. to her own use, & he made s^d Eliz. executrix. And reciting that s^d Humf. died, indebted as well to the King as to others in 1,000*l.* and more & that the executrix had applied to Sir Francis for payment of his debt, who confessed same & answered that as touchyng the 200*l.* the King was fully content at his hands by the sale of certain woods called Pondysburne Woods 'which he holdyth in right of his wyff' & he would see that the inheritance of 'the said howse of Markyate' should come to her husbands brethren according to the said will, by colour of which pretended purchase he still detained the 200*l.* etc, willing the s^d Elizabeth to resort to London at the next term which was at Michaelmas 'yt nowe shalbe ij yeres' and then he would move the king to grant letters patent for the purchase, what time he received 'a grete horse pryce xxⁱⁱ m^l k^l' for his pains; and reciting that Sir Francis had not kept his promises and further that the plaintiff George Ferrers had married s^d Elizabeth, the King is prayed to address his 'moost dradde l^res of pryve seale' to s^d Francis commanding him to appear & make answer to the premises.

Humphrey Bouchier was the second son of Sir John Bouchier, lord Berners (Will in P.C.C. Hogen 10) by Elizabeth Bacon & was born out of wedlock. His grandfather Sir Humphrey Bouchier knight, was killed at the Second Battle of St. Albans 1471 (Will in P.C.C. Wattys 5). Margaret, a daughter of Sir Humphrey Bouchier, married to her second husband Sir Thomas Bryan & was the mother of the Sir Francis Bryan mentioned in the above Proceeding.

Elizabeth the relict of Humph. Bouchier, did not long remain a widow. On the 10 Dec. 33 Hen. VIII. 1541 we find her making her will (P.C.C. A pedigree of Ferrers printed in an Appendix to the Visitations of Hertfordshire, published by the Harleian Society, states that George Ferrers married Jane daughter of John Southcote. Amongst the Marriage Licenses from the Faculty Office (also printed by the Harleian Society), under date 5 Mch. 1545-6, occurs the entry "George Feres of the King's household & Jane Sowthtrote [sic] of the towne of St Albans."

George Ferrers appears to have married a third wife, Margaret Preston, widow, of St Albans, (see Bp. of London Marr. Lic. 26 Nov. 1569) at St Albans Abbey on the 29th Nov. 1569.

Court of Requests Proceedings.

TEMP. HENRY VIII.

WARDE v. SALFORD

(Bundle I. No. 84.)

Bill of complaint of Johan Warde of Chepyng Bernet, co. Hertf. wedo, recites that one Wm. Salford of the same town gent, on the 2nd October last, came to a certain ground or pasture of the complainants called Arkeley in the holding of one Wm. Preston & distrained six kine being great in calf & seven "bolok^l there beyng pastoryng of the seid Willm Preston" & "theym enchased into a floren Counte & ther wrongfully thaym impounded"; that the complainant seeing her tenant wrongfully vexed, came to the dwelling house of said Salford & reasonably moved him to deliver up the s^d beasts, but he "nothyng regarding god yor lawes ne good cōsyens in forsibull man' leyde his haude oppon yor seid oratrix & w^t the other hande smotte yor seid oratrix oppon the hedde in such man' as yor seid oratrix dit synke to the grunde lykele to haue byn deed & aft^r when sche ley oppon the grunde the seid Willm Salford w^t his hand^l & fette dit assaute & bette yor seid oratrix in suche man' y^t yor seid oratrix wod in dispayre & iudy of hur lyffe"; that s^d Salford had again distrained three colts from the same ground. The complaint is a very poor widow, whilst the defendant is a man of great substance & power in the country.

The Answer of Salford is, that the land where the taking of the beasts is supposed, is and was the freehold of the Abbot of St Albans & the complainant had the land for certain years paying yearly a certain rent, & he (Salford) as bailiff of the Abbot distrained the beasts for rent behind, upon which distress the said Wm. Preston "sued a repleg fac" against s^d Salford "within the libertie & seignorye of Rigge and hath declared according to his writte the whiche accion is yet hangyng." Moreover s^d Joan is a woman of good substance & "hable to sue by thordre of the cōen lawe."

The Herts Genealogist and Antiquary.

Notes on the Hyde Family of Aldbury.

Amongst the "Rentals and Surveys" at the Public Record Office, is one described in the official index as "Portfolio 19/12. A Valor of certain manors purchased from the Crown. Dorset and Hertford. [? Hen. VIII.]." Although the name of the owner of the property is not stated in the document, it is easily ascertainable from other sources.

The Valor so far as relates to the county of Hertford is as follows :

| The lond in Dorsetshyr purchesyed of the Kinges matie cost | } ^{xx} cciiij li . |

Then follow accounts of values of or receipts from the Dorsetshire property & an account of lands in Dorset commencing with 'my howse and grownde called Hyde which my brother Stephen holdyth at wyll.' The writer's brother Richard is also named. The places named are, The Hyde, Asshechanell, Cotelease, Bysay, Caymesoth, Waldyche, Uploder, Bridport, Upstyrthyll, Frechapell of St Luke, The Wyche, Cornmyll called Bothenhamton, Batts, etc.

Lastly comes an account of the yearly values of the Hertfordshire property as foll :—

Referring to the Feet of Fines already printed in this Magazine, we find that in Hilary Term 34 Hen. VIII. (1542-3), John Hyde purchased a moiety of a third part of the manors of Aldbury and Thyscote from Geo. Denham esq & Alice his wife and in Easter Term 36 Henry VIII. (1544) John Hyde esq purchased a third part of the manor of Albury & of lands in Albury & the advowson of the Chantry in Albury Church, from Thos. Dynham esq. In the following term John Hyde gent & Margt. his wife & Thos. Hyde son & heir apparent of said John are found disposing of the manor of Gledseys & other property to John Gylle gent & Margaret his wife. About the same period John Hyde made further purchases of property in Albury & Tyscote & the neighbourhood from Thos. Babyngton esq.

An Inquisition post mortem of John Hyde for the county of Hertford does not appear to be in existence, but that for Dorset may be found at the Record Office under the 37th year of Henry VIII. No. 28. It was taken at Bridport on the 24th Oct. 1545 & sets out the Dorsetshire property fully & names Stephen Hyde & Richard Hyde as tenant of tenements in Hyde, Waldyche & Loders & states that John Hyde died 20th Sept. 1545 & Thomas Hyde was his son & next heir & was aged 26 years & more at his father's death.

Mr. Cussans' account of the manor of Aldbury appears to be wrong. He states that in the early part of Henry the eighth's reign, the manor was in the possession of Sir Thos. Denham knight who married Joan Hyde, and that Joan after the death of Sir Thomas was married to Wm. Fitz-William but leaving no issue by either husband, she devised the manor to her kinsman Thomas Hyde who held a court there in 1517 and again in 1569.

The following wills of Sir Thos. Denham & his wife effectually disprove most of the above statements.

* Query the celebrated author of The Book of Martyrs.

Mr Cussans does not mention John Hyde in his account of Aldbury, but gives the monumental inscription & a description of the tomb of Thomas Hyde.

The following abstracts of Wills & Inquisitions will prove of assistance in compiling a pedigree of the Hydes during the time they held property in Hertfordshire.

The English Emersons.

Dr P. H. Emerson has added a very valuable contribution to genealogical literature in "THE ENGLISH EMERSONS."* Unlike many compilers of family histories who amplify the record of their own with chapters on allied families, Dr. Emerson has confined himself strictly to a record of facts relating to persons of his own name and may be congratulated on having produced a very readable volume.

Every available source of information appears to have been investigated and a highly important feature of the work is the Appendix which contains over a hundred closely printed pages of Authorities. Too often "chapter and verse" are conspicuous by their absence in family histories and the plan adopted by Dr. Emerson of grouping his authorities in an appendix is excellent and does not interfere with the text.

With the chapters on the origin of the surname, the armorial bearings of the family and the history of the numerous north-country and other Emersons, it would be impossible to deal, in the compass of this short notice. It was my good fortune to be instrumental in identifying the ancestor, not only of the author, but also of the distinguished American, Ralph Waldo Emerson, with Bishops Stortford, a fact which should be of great interest to Herts genealogists. The details of my discovery are given in the sixth chapter.

Tabular sketch pedigrees abound throughout the book and I am glad to find in the Errata that the author has himself pointed out one small defect in the printing of them, which might perhaps mislead. The short perpendicular lines shewing descent are placed over the mark signifying the marriage of a son or daughter as the case may be, instead of being directly over the name of the person intended.

As a guide to any persons who desire to work up the history of their families, in indicating the very numerous lines of research and sources of information which must be followed and worked at to produce a satisfactory result, "The English Emersons" may be heartily recommended and Dr. Emerson's work will stand for all time as the book of reference for all interested in his name. No expense or pains have been spared to make it a reliable book and the numerous illustrations and carefully prepared indices are deserving of the greatest praise.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory of functions of a complex variable. The problem is solved in the case of a certain class of functions.
 The results are then applied to the theory of conformal mappings. The paper concludes with a list of references.

2. The second part of the paper is devoted to a detailed study of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory of functions of a complex variable. The problem is solved in the case of a certain class of functions.
 The results are then applied to the theory of conformal mappings. The paper concludes with a list of references.
